The Ultimate VIP Investor Event leading into Vancouver's Premier Mining Conferences

Our VIP Investor Event is held on the Saturday leading into the Vancouver Resource Investment Conference (VRIC) and the Association for Mineral Exploration's Roundup Conference (AMEBC). This event provides Resource Companies with a unique platform to present their stories to a select group of High-Net-Worth Investors, Funds, and Finance Professionals through a series of pre-scheduled, focused meetings. After a productive day of meetings, attendees will have the opportunity to network in a relaxed atmosphere within the prestigious Canucks "Legends" Suite at Rogers Arena, while enjoying the Vancouver Canucks vs. Edmonton Oilers game.

SPONSORSHIP DETAILS:

The sponsorship fee for presenting companies is $7,500. This comprehensive package includes:

Full Day of Scheduled Meetings with High Net Worth Investors, Funds, and Finance Professionals.

Pre-Event Investor Profiles for each meeting, ensuring targeted and productive discussions.

Presentation Printing and Meeting Coordination to streamline your experience.

All-Inclusive Food & Beverage Service during the meeting day and in the VIP suite.

Networking Opportunities in the exclusive Canucks "Legends" Suite at Rogers Arena.

Company Representation: Each company is allowed up to two representatives for the meetings and one representative in the VIP suite, ensuring a focused and efficient presence.

INVESTOR DEMOGRAPHICS:

Our exclusive event accommodates 32 select individuals. It is open to accredited investors and finance professionals who are actively involved in financings and open market buying. Accredited investors must have a minimum of $1 million in deployable capital, while finance professionals should manage a sizable client book.

We understand the importance of connecting with a diverse and fresh group of investors. To ensure this, we meticulously curate our attendee list to include a balanced mix of both new and familiar faces. This approach guarantees that presenting companies will engage with a dynamic and varied audience, providing fresh opportunities and avoiding the repetition of meeting the same investors at every conference or event. Our commitment is to foster meaningful and impactful interactions that drive new business relationships and investment opportunities.
